

Friday Flyer

Selwyn Hall
school

17th November 2023

Dear Parents and Carers,

Children in Need, on Friday, gave us lots of fun and merriment as we did four laps of the field: running, walking, skipping or galloping. Thank you so much for your kind donations; the certificate shown below has been increased to £15.50 from a further amount given. Lots of children said they were going to be watching it on television that evening so I hope you all had a marvellous time.

Fox class

In Fox class this week, one of our highlights was enjoying parachute games with Vulture class. We all showed great co-operation and most importantly there were happy faces and lots of laughter. Today, Children in Need Day, we enjoyed a day with Pudsey and thought hard about the good work that the charity does for worthy causes. Mrs Angell

Vulture class

There has been some great work in maths this week, with students investigating angles, their properties, and lots of relevant new maths vocabulary. Music saw students developing their own rhythms and beats, and writing their own pieces. We joined together with Fox class for PE and had great fun with our new parachute. Having come to the end of our class reading book Freeze by Chris Priestley, I eagerly await the next book to be chosen. Miss Hunko and Mrs Bentley

Crocodile class

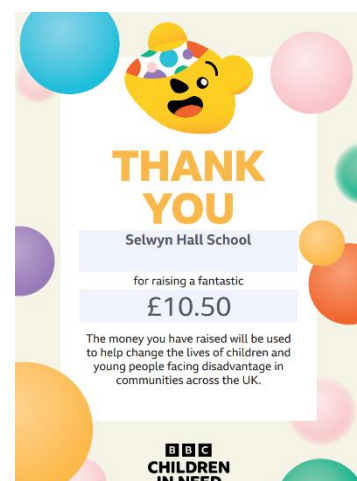

In our learning, this week, we have started to begin each day with our phonics, and I am already seeing progress. The crocodiles have been looking at positions in maths and recapping our times tables. We have also been naming the oceans in Geography and oral hygiene in Life Skills. The class have been showing such great manners and kindness to others and now deserve a relaxing weekend! Miss McInnes

Final Thought

Our children have started bringing a reading book home, aligned with their reading or phonics stage. Please help them by reading it with them or to them, if possible. We have been blown away by the enthusiasm for reading from the children. Please write in their blue reading diary to show what they have done at home. Thank you.

Have a good weekend.
